KING'S SON IS A RUNAWAY. - Prince Inkanthor, son of the King of Cambodia, who was recently a guest of France in connection with the exposi tion, has disappeared. It was supposed he sailed for home last week on board a steamer from Marseilles, but it has just been discovered that one of his suite took his place. The prince is stated to have taken refuge in Bressels. The French government is much concerned over his disappearance, and has instituted an active search. A curious reason is given for his flight. It appears that Inkanthor misled the French government by representing himself as the crown prince of Cambodia, and was treated as such during his visit. In Cambodis, however, the King's brother, not his son, is heir to the throne, and an account of his son's doings in Paris reached the ears of King Norrodom, who was very wrathful, Moreover, Prince Inkanthor published in a Parisian newspaper an article containing anti-dynastical declara tions and utterly contrary to Cam-bodian ideas and traditions. In these circumstances it is believed that he deemed it expedient to postpone his return to his native land.

COAL AND WOOD

BY ELEVATING THE QUALITY of our coal we lower the price in economy of consumption. Consumers will find that it is cheaper to use our high grade Lee Coal, that has been screened and freed from slate and stone, than that of an inferior grade. It gives more heat, less ashes and burns longer than any other coal, and our prices are as low as any. Coal and Wood under cover.
